

Instruction manual for your all-weather shell.

Here is what it looks like assembled:

Insert white rods into the rain cover in the locations indicated: the two straight rods – one on each side, then the curved rod in the front. This keeps the rain cover rigid when riding.